Break me, melt me, mold me, fill me!

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me

Today's Gem

Closely connected with Christ's warning in regard to the sin against the Holy Spirit is a warning against idle and evil words. The words are an indication of that which is in the heart. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." But the words are more than an indication of character; they have power to react on the character. Men are influenced by their own words. Often under a momentary impulse, prompted by Satan, they give utterance to jealousy or evil surmising, expressing that which they do not really believe; but the expression reacts on the thoughts. They are deceived by their words, and come to believe that true which was spoken at Satan's instigation.

- The Home & School is joining forces with the Social Committee for an outside Fall Social tomorrow. Plan now to be there!
- The next church board meeting will be tomorrow before the social event - October 22 at 10:00am.
- Our next communion will be on October 28. A time for reflection on what Christ has done on the cross; is doing in our lives today; and will do when He comes again.
- Keep on the lookout for information about our Health Ministries' activities on Sunday, October 29 and Sunday November 12!

Keep our Missionaries, Joshua, Stephanie, Nathan, and Alyssa in your prayers as they minister in Cambodia

On Sabbath, October 28, Upper Columbia Conference invites you to prayerfully give towards a special conference-wide Serve One More offering. We are seeking to raise more than $2 million by December 31, 2023. These funds will be designated for your church, your school, or anyone else — young or old — who chooses to serve others through relevant, practical, and innovative community service. Please join us in this offering next Sabbath and help us all Serve One More. For more information, go to www.uccsda.org/serveoffering.
